

NC SOPHE 2021 Annual Conference, Call for Abstracts, Justice & Equity: The Future of Health Education

Please complete the NC SOPHE 2021 Abstract Submission Form below. Abstracts are due on August 20, 2021!

The North Carolina Chapter of the Society for Public Health Education (NC SOPHE) offers an exciting opportunity to share research findings, program impact, policy changes, innovative approaches, and expertise with the health education, public health, and health promotion professional community during its 2021 Annual Conference. The 2021 Annual Conference will be held virtually, on November 4-5, 2021. The presentations this year will be held in two formats. 1) An ignite-style 3-minute poster session that is an oral presentation with one, static PowerPoint slide. 2) A 10-15 minute oral presentation with PowerPoint slides.

We encourage abstracts that are interactive, focus on evidence-based practices, use innovative methods, engage community, and can be applicable in a variety of health education and health promotion, healthcare, research and policy settings. Potential program focus areas could include, but are not at all limited to: Health Equity; Population Health; Chronic Disease Prevention and/or Management; Preparedness; LGBTQ+ Health; Child/Adolescent Health; Mental Health/Substance Use Disorder; Workforce Diversity; Community Engagement; Health Policy. This year's theme is: "Justice & Equity: The Future of Health Education."

Abstracts are due by August 20th, 2021. Corresponding authors will be notified by email whether their proposal was accepted or declined. All corresponding authors will receive a formal letter of acceptance from NC SOPHE along with conference registration information.

Abstract
and Objectives

In this section, NC SOPHE asks you to write two SMART objectives while considering the Eight Areas of Responsibility for Health Education Specialists. We ask our presenters for this information so that we can submit an application to award CHES and MCHES CE credits for our conference sessions.

For guidance from National SOPHE on writing SMART objectives please review the following document.
